

LEED Gold Certified Projects

U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS

BUILDING STRONG®

Incorporating sustainability into design and construction

The following Louisville District projects have achieved gold certification under the U.S. Green Building Council's Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design criteria.

Armed Forces Reserve Center, Tyler, Texas

Corps of Engineers project manager: Steve Farkus

Prime contractor/designer of record (design-build):
Korte Construction Company

Tactical equipment shop, maintenance and supply facility, Fort Campbell, Ky.

Corps of Engineers project manager: James Cruz

Prime contractor: J&S Construction Company

Designer of record: OHM Engineering Advisors

The Maj. Gen. Salvador Padilla Armed Forces Reserve Center in Fort Allen, Puerto Rico

Corps of Engineers project manager: Veronica Rife

Prime contractor: Korte Construction Company

Designer of record: Michael Baker Jr. Inc.

Armed Forces Reserve Center, McAlester, Okla.

Corps of Engineers project manager: Betty Beck

Prime contractor: Korte Construction Company

Designer of record: Baker and Associates

Armed Forces Reserve Center, Round Rock, Texas

Corps of Engineers project manager: Joni Hibbard

Prime contractor: Korte Construction Company

Designer of record: Baker and Associates

Detroit Arsenal Administration Building, Mich.

Corps of Engineers project manager: James Cruz

Prime contractor: Granger Construction

Designer of record: Neumann Smith Architecture